ON THE DEATH OF

MISS MARY CATHARINE ULRICH.

WEEP NOT FOR HER.

THE ADAMS SENTINEL AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

Important from Utah Territory.
The Mormons "Regulating" Things—Expulsion of Gentiles—Threatening State of Affairs.

As everything from Utah territory at the present time is of more or less interest, we copy the following from the Leavenworth Herald of the 30th ult.

Mr. Williams and Mr. Morrel arrived here on the 29th from Salt Lake, left Salt Lake on the 15th of April; grass six weeks later than was ever known; snow on the mountains averages twenty feet; everything quiet on the plains; saw but few Indians; met Col. Storer with two companies United States troops at Vermillion, one hundred miles out; met first emigrant trains twenty miles this side of Fort Kearney, getting along very well and generally healthy; met more or less every day in large numbers coming from the southwestern part of Missouri, with large number of stock; estimated that 10,000 wagons and 20,000 cattle would cross the plains for California. The entire company consisted of McGraw's mail train, under direction of Jos. Jones; D. Burr, U. S. Surveyor General of Utah; Judge Stiles, Associate Justice of Utah, and family; U. S. Marshal Doolin and family; H. F. Morrel, postmaster at Salt Lake; Thomas S. Williams and family, late firm of Hooper & Williams. Company consisted of sixty-thirty miles and thirty females. Salt Lake mail passed down yesterday—250 wagons, with 1,000 emigrant seceders from Utah, will come to the States, and about 1,000 will go to California.

Mr. Williams' life has been threatened.
It was prophesied by Brigham Young and other Mormons that he would never get away from Salt Lake alive. A secret organized band, ever ready to do the orders of the Prophet and twelve Apostles, were threatening his life. He defied their vengeance. It was a miracle that Williams got away. Brigham Young has not left Salt Lake, and the rumor that he was compelled to flee the country is untrue.

The half of the outrages of the Mormons that Mr. Williams knows of cannot be told in the limit and space we have.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat, who had an interview with Gen. Burr and Judge Stiles, writes:

Their accounts of affairs in that territory are very exciting. The Mormons during the past winter have been perpetrating many outrages upon the Gentiles and the United States authorities. The gentlemen and the people of the Prophet and twelve Apostles were mostly in the employ of Messrs.
Alexander & Skinner, engaged about their extensive Foundry and Machine Shops, which had built up the place and given it all the importance it had attained. Before night the whole village, the foundry, machine shops, saw mills, and every dwelling in the place except six were consumed. A fire had previously raged in the woods, was driven by a wind from a point or two South of West, like a hair storm, upon the doomed village. Women at the wash-tub were compelled to drop their work, or turn the wet clothes into the cistern, to gather together their children, and fly to the field for their lives.

In one hour forty-three buildings and from $75,000 to $100,000 worth of property were reduced to ashes, and forty families made homeless and houseless, without food or clothing, and without the means of employment. The place was surrounded by flames on all sides, and it seems miraculous that none perished in the sudden and overwhelming calamity. The men who went to the woods to contend with the flames there, and that was the case with most of them, returned to find their houses a heap of smoking ruins. But two or three men saved even a coat, and a few of the people of the village, anything except what was on their persons. Every building consumed—the clerk in the store having merely time to put the books and papers in the safe before he was compelled to fly.

The Sentinel states that the call for aid has not been unheeded. Villages in the immediate vicinity have done nobly for the relief of the sufferers.

Singular Circumstance.
As a son of Mr. Jacob Reinhardt, residing at Upton, Franklin county, Pa., a lad about twelve years of age, was passing along on the bank of the West Conococheague Creek, his attention was attracted to a boy, still less than himself, preparing baits for his hook and line, as he was fishing. When he saw him, the boy suddenly manifested great alarm, and fell back into the creek.— Young Reinhardt, with unusual presence of mind, immediately procured a pole, and thrust the end of it into the water where the boy had fallen in, and although he was so deep in the water as to be out of sight, yet he took hold of it, when young Reinhardt drew him to the shore. He had scarce got him out as he perceived the cause of the little fellow's alarm, which was that a large black snake, about four and a half feet in length, had wrapped itself tight around the boy's body. Fortunately he had been using a knife for cutting baits which he dropped when the snake first attacked him. Picking it up, young Reinhardt immediately applied it to his knuckles, to release the little fellow from his coils; but so tight was it fastened around his body, that he had to insert the blade flatwise between the body of the boy and the snake, and then turned the edge, and by a vigorous cut, severed it in two. In doing this, however, he did not escape being hit himself in the finger, without, however, being much injured therefrom, as the inflammation produced from the bite was slight. The snake had wrapped itself nearly twice around the body of the boy. This is certainly a singular circumstance, and owing to the presence of mind of young Reinhardt, he was saved from a premature death.

WESTON, Mo., May 25, 1857.
Mr. Samuel Gilbert arrived in this city last night from Great Salt Lake City. He left on the road, about two hundred miles from here, Gen. Burr, United States Surveyor-General of Utah; Judge Stiles, of the United States District Court of Utah; Peter Dudson, United States Marshal; Mr.
Murrell, United States Postmaster at Salt Lake; Thomas Williams, and a large number of "gentiles," coming into the State.

Spiritual Maria and Self-Sacrifice.
—The Chicago papers relate a singular case of insanity from spiritualism, resulting in death. An old lady, fifty-five years of age, became a spiritualist and a medium. She attended several sittings, and at last professed to have received an order not to eat or drink, and commenced obeying the order. Her friends sent her to Chicago, where physicians and clergymen were called to visit her, but could effect nothing. Two or three times she was forced down her throat; but she wasted away till Sunday evening, the 26th ult., when she died.
A day or two before she died some meat was being stewed in the kitchen, the smell of which attracted her attention; and turning to her daughter-in-law, she said, "that is very tempting, but I dare not touch it."

A Great Fleet of Canal Boats.—On Thursday last there were congratulated on the Eric canal, at Montezuma, and for many miles east and west, between one and two thousand canal boats, loaded with merchantice for the West, waiting for breaks in the canal to be repaired, so that they could proceed. Five thousand men and three thousand horses and mules were lying idle in consequence, and as provisions and feed were unusually high, many of the poor boatmen were troubled to sustain themselves and their teams. On Friday, however, the breaks had been repaired so that the boats could pass freely.

THE ADAMS SENTINEL AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

Prices out West.—Mr. Stephen Miller, of Harrisburg, writes home from St. Cloud, Minnesota, under date of May 23, the following statement of the prices ruling out there at the present time:—

Land can be had of the best quality according to location at from $1.25 per acre up to $100, and prices of produce, &c., range about as follows:

Corn, wheat and oats are the same price, $1.50 per bushel. Potatoes $2 per bushel. Hay $40 per ton. M'ch eggs $50 to $75 per head. Work oxen $100 to $200 per pair. Mules $400 to $800 per pair. Butter 35 cents per pound; 50 cents in the winter; and I have not seen a good mouthful in the Territory, nor since I left Harrisburg. Eggs 25 cents per dozen, 50 cents in the winter, &c., &c. Potatoes, corn, oats and spring wheat, are considered as sure a crop here as in the eastern States; fall wheat is as yet an experiment, but little has been sown; some have failed, while others have succeeded finely, and give it as their opinion that where failure occurs, it is attributable to late sowing.

More of the Famine in Michigan.—Distressing Scenes.—The Michigan famine is sadly pictured by a writer from Detroit, who says that in Clinton county, he saw a woman who sustained her sick husband and two children on maple sugar and looks several days before she could get other relief; she then had to carry the provisions several miles on her back. This woman had taken care of her sick husband since last August, and her family of two children, beside which she made 100 pounds of maple sugar, cleared the ground and hoed in two acres of spring wheat, and planted some corn and potatoes. She was habited in tattered garments.

Another family of a father and three daughters, aged fifteen, twelve and ten, said they lived on milk, maple sugar and biscuits for a week after they could borrow nothing more, before supplies reached them. Two other families, consisting of four grown persons and seven children, and who considered themselves well off, had no bread, biscuits except two bushels of spring wheat, and a like quantity of oats, which they had got for seed. This they mixed together and ground in a coffee mill. Milk, and a few fish they had caught, constituted their supplies.

Alleged Case of Death by Poison.—A colored man by the name of Sebastian, living near Marietta, died suddenly on Friday last, and was buried on Sunday. On Monday morning his wife—to whom he had been married but a few weeks—was arrested on suspicion of having caused his death by administering poison.

The Evening Express says that the evidence against her is, that she bought arsenic at a drug store on Thursday, and on Friday he was taken very ill, with great pain in the stomach and intestines. She applied to a physician for medicine to relieve him, and obtained laudanum, of which she gave him an overdose and quieted both him and the pain for ever.

A Victim of Woman's Hate.—William Richmond, an industrious young Englishman, employed in a flour mill at Genesee, N. Y., had an acquaintance, a young girl, whom he called cousin. She sued him for breach of promise, and the jury gave her a verdict of $500. Then she caused him to be arrested as the father of her child, and he gave bonds to pay $1 a week for seven years for its support. A third time she caused his arrest on her oath charging him with rape. This was too much for Richmond's philosophy; and requesting permission of the officer to go to his room in the mill and change his clothes, he went, and blew his brains out with a pistol. The local newspaper thinks he was bitterly persecuted and forced the young woman's revenge will now be satisfied.

Heavy Robbery.—The Cincinnati Gazette of Saturday says: "Mr. Ulrich, a broker, was robbed at his room at the Denison House, on Wednesday night, of $1,800 in notes, and $200 in specie, which he kept in a box under his bed. There were two beds in the room. Mr. Harris and his wife slept in one of them, and his son in the other. He had been in the habit of carrying his money home from the office to his room at night for safe keeping. A sponge was found in the room, which it is supposed, had been saturated with chloroform."

Fire in the Woods and Damage to Property.—For several days most destructive fires have been raging in the woods in Franklin, St. Lawrence and Clinton counties. Barns, out-houses, fences, forests, &c., have all been consumed, and two or three lives lost. The bridge over the river was also burned. But about five or six houses are left. Several hogs and some calves were also burned.

Americans in Europe.—Thousands of Americans are now in Europe, and others are directing their steps to that portion of the world. The rage for travel was never so great as now. This may be attributed in some measure to the facilities afforded by steam navigation. It is stated that prior to 1850 the number of Americans that visited the old world never exceeded 7,500 in any one year, and the average number for the ten years previous was not more than 5,000. In 1850 the Collins steamers commenced running, and 29,362 Americans crossed the Atlantic during that year. In 1856 the number of American travellers returning from Europe that landed at New York was 30,319. In 1855 the number that landed at our ports, was 29,639; but in 1851 it reached 32,641.

A merchant in Lockport, N. Y., recently offered a young lady, in jest, ten dollars, if she would wear one of his posters, setting forth the attractions of his place of business, to her home in another part of the village. To his astonishment, she accepted the offer, and actually performed the conditions of the bargain much to the amusement of those who happened to be in the street. The gentleman performed his part of the contract the next morning by paying over the money.

The Rescue of Walker.

Referring to the rescue of Gen. Walker from his perilous position in Nicaragua, the New York Sun says that Commander DAVIS, of the St. Mary's, acted no doubt upon instructions from Washington, and he seems to have performed a delicate, and in some degree a disagreeable service, in a manner which entitles him to the approval of his Government and the thanks of his countrymen.

An attempt, we observe, is being made by some of Walker's friends, who are much chagrined at the falsification of their stories and prophecies, to reward the timely intervention of Commander Davis with detraction, accusing him of threatening coercive measures to compel Walker to capitulate. The less that Walker's partisans say on this subject the better. He could not have held Rivas another week, his provisions being exhausted, and he and his partisans ought to be grateful that Commander Davis interfered just in time to save the lives which must have been sacrificed in the attempt to cut their way through the enemy's line and retreat from the country.

According to a despatch from New Orleans, Walker proposes to make another descent upon Nicaragua; but we regard this as mere bravado, to tickle the fancy of the foolish crowd who are paying him the honors of a hero. Who will have now under Walker's lead? He has demonstrated his unfitness to command, and the American people will set their faces resolutely against any movement in which he may be the leading spirit. He may still have a few sympathizers in the South, but the public estimate of the man is so thoroughly fixed that he can never obtain the means or resources necessary to fit out another expedition. He might be able to gather a number of fools on whom all experience is lost; but the men who could furnish the sinews of war are not so easily duped, and they have lost all confidence in the generalship and statesmanship of William Walker.

A PATRIOTIC CITIZEN.—Dr. Brandreth, the great Pill man, is proving himself to be one of the most liberal men of the age. He has now not only conceived the project of completing, at his own expense, the Washington Monument, but has deliberately resolved to devote the proceeds of his large business, amounting to $40,000 yearly, to the consummation of the work. Such an instance of liberality, prompted by a patriotic feeling and the reverence which must inspire every American heart for the name of Washington, can scarcely be paralleled in the world's history. The abdolition of the undulating is equalled only by its disinterestedness, but the energy and the liberality of Dr. Brandreth furnish sufficient guarantees that it will be carried vigorously forward to its completion. He has also contributed one thousand dollars to the Dudley Observatory at Albany. His liberality is not only confined to matters appertaining to the public, but he is constantly scattering around private charities which in a multitude of instances are never known to any but the recipients, and those intimately associated with him.

Confession of a Murderer.—Edward W. Hawkins, who was hanged at Irving, Ky., on the 20th ult., wrote a letter on the day of his execution to the editors of the Louisville Democrat, acknowledging that he had murdered four persons and married six wives—one of whom committed suicide on discovering the character of her husband. This atrocious villain was not quite 21 years of age at the time he was hanged.

A Frightful Lead.—On Friday morning, an Italian, whose name is unknown, supposed to be deranged, leaped from the fourth story window of the Hotel de Lyons, New York, and was dashed to pieces; he remains bespattered the pavement for a considerable distance.

A Blind Housekeeper.—There is a lady living in this city, says the Fall River (Mass.) Star, who had the misfortune a few years since to be deprived entirely and irreversibly of her sight. She is at the head of a family, and cooks, bakes, irons, cleans house, sweeps the floor, and in fact does all her work except washing, without assistance; and it is said her house is the very picture of neatness. There are many women with two good eyes who don't do this.

NORRISH'S APPARATUS.—An old man named Lyons, about 70 years of age, from the neighborhood of Mt. Gilford, in Loudoun county, Va., was committed to the Lee-Burg jail on Sunday evening last for having inflicted a serious wound with an ax upon the head of his daughter. The unfortunate woman was married and is the mother of six children. At last accounts her recovery was considered doubtful.

A Pleasant Family Party.—On the 1st instant a man, residing near Mine Hill Gap, Pa., while amusing himself at the manly pastime of beating his wife, was shot and seriously injured with a pistol in the hands of his son, who is quite a lad.

The BIG SAFE.—Measuring 51 feet high by 41 feet wide, and weighing 4,360 pounds, has been attracting much attention at the office of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings Institution in S. W. corner of Public Square. Every body nearly in town has been to see it. Our friends from the country have been, and are still, dropping in to see this, the largest safe brought into the County.

This safe furnishes another ground for confidence to depositors. The security for the deposits they make is of the same character, and as extensive as that afforded by a bank to its depositors—the stockholders in the one and the other being in the same manner liable. The safe keeping of the money and the security to depositors thus afford a double safeguard to those thinking of depositing their money where, instead of tying up, they will produce interest in the Savings Institution.

THE LAST MORMON HEREA.—The Mormons of Alton have about all left—"boys and baggage," for the Upper Missouri, thence to take their weary march across the Plains. The most of them intend to go to a new region of the Salt Lake country, some 200 miles from the Great City, "the wilderness," as they term it—and there found a new home.

PRESEYTERIAN CHURCH STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—THE Ladies interested in the Presbyterian Church of Gettysburg, propose giving a STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL on Friday and Saturday evenings next, at the room on the South-East Corner of Centre Square—to which they invite the public generally. The choice fruits of the season, Ice Cream, Cake, &c., will be there in abundance, to gratify the taste of the most fastidious.

Alton Illinois Courier.

Attempt to Assassinate the President of Mexico.

President Comonfort, on a recent visit to Tacubaya, to inspect the railroad in progress at that place, was assaulted by one Norgia, a noted bandit, with a poignard.—The fatal blow was warded off by a bystander, who promptly knocked the would-be assassin down. He was finally secured, tried, convicted, and sentenced to suffer the pain of death next day, as an atonement for his treason. He confessed that he was bribed to perpetrate this act by Centralists of the City of Mexico.

A Determined Suicide.—The London (Canada) Free Press gives the following account of the suicide of a Scotchman named John Ross, whose body was found in the woods near Lobo, on the 1st inst., hanging by the neck from a young sapling:

It appears that the wretched man must first have attempted suicide by stabbing himself to the bowels five successive times, with a small knife. Finding that death did not ensue, he must have proceeded (as shown by the tracks of blood) some yards off, where he cut himself in the throat, and made a second gash, completely severing his windpipe. Here another pool of blood was found. He must then have gone, wounded as he was, to a tree, which he climbed, evidently with a view to hanging, but finding it not suitable to his purpose he descended, leaving the tree covered with blood. The blood tracks next showed that he went some little distance off and selected a young sapling, to which he tied his handkerchief, and thrashing himself on his hands and knees, he effectually committed his purpose."

Rat Story.—A lady in upper town was awakened from her sleep night before last by a sharp pain on her forehead, and on putting her hand to her head, it came in contact with a large rat. As a matter of course she jumped up quickly, and on procuring a light, discovered that the rat had gnawed a hole in her forehead, and yesterday the injured part was swollen, and caused her much pain.—St. Paul (Minnesota) Times, 29th.

Shewry in Minnesota.—The Minnesota Republic, published at St. Anthony, says that men are now held as slaves, as property, in Minnesota. Every year men who come from the South bring their slaves as body servants to the hotels, and take them away again. And it has positive information that a Southerner is now holding his slaves at Stillwater, and declares that under the Dred Scott decision he dares the authorities to interfere. He intends to remain in the territory, and thus to render slavery a permanent institution.
